Please note the following Municipal Elections Act financing rules:

1. An individual who is normally resident in Ontario
2. The maximum contribution that an individual can make is $1200 per candidate.
3. Sorry we CANNOT accept corporate or union donations.
4. Candidate cannot accept cash donations that exceed $25.00.
5. A complete list of contributors in an audited statement will be made public immediately following the election. This list is available to the media and for the public to review. All contributors who donate $100.00 or more will have their name published in the media after the election.

Note: The Expositor, in the past, has requested each candidate to consider submitting the names of contributors who give $100 or more to the paper to be published prior to the election. While I believe in an open and inclusive process and fully intend to abide by the Municipal Elections Act financing rules, I also have great respect and appreciation for my donors and their support. As such, I ask for your opinion and respect your decision with this matter:

Yes, I authorize the Chris Friel Campaign to release my name to the media prior to the election.

No, I do not authorize the Chris Friel Campaign to release my name to the media prior to the election.

Thank you for your support – see you on election night, October 22nd
